Organised by Bridgend County Borough Council’s Arts & Culture Service in conjunction with Academi – Welsh Literature Council for Wales, young people will be able to explore new opportunities for creative writing including poetry, scriptwriting, journalism, fiction, author visits and so much more. In the first term, participants will research the history of the county borough, create their own face book pages of the area’s important events and write a play on the history of the county borough which will be premiered in July 2009 by Bridgend Youth Theatre. Don’t miss this fantastic opportunity to learn more about the methods of creative writing and even see your work performed on stage!
