

This information sheet links to Risk Assessment Reference Number: COSHH02 /	NAME OF PRODUCT / SUBSTANCE: Tomcat 2 contains 0.005% Bromadiolone &amp; Denatonium Benzoate Blistering Agent
USE / EXPOSURE (DETAILS OF THE WAY IT IS USED): 50 to 250g placed in rat trap at intervals of 5 to 10 metres, using the applicator provided on Allotment Site which is only accessible to members who are aware of its presence.	MANUFACTURER'S NAME: Antec International A DuPoint Comp DATE OF MSDS SHEET: 22/07/04 LOCATION OF MSDS SHEET: Attached plus a copy on display in storage area.
IS THE HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE GENERATED AS A RESULT OF A PROCESS?  YES / NO	HAZARD WARNING SYMBOL ON CONTAINER LABEL: (circle)
Workplace Exposure Limit (WEL):  25 weeks
POTENTIAL HARM OR ILL EFFECTS: (state what harm may occur) Grains may be irritating to eyes Symptoms of over exposure is reduced clotting ability of the blood with resultant bleeding If ingested, do not give drinks or induce vomiting. Call a doctor immediately Is health surveillance required? Yes 2 weeks	ACTION TO BE TAKEN IN CASE OF EMERGENCY: FIRST AID ARRANGEMENTS: Ingestion: Do no induce vomiting or give drinks. Seek medical help immediately: Eye Contact: Flush with plenty of water. Note to doctor: Bromadiolone is an anticoagulant. Phytomenadlone, Vitamin K1 is antidote. Determine prothrombin times not less than 18 hours after co0nsumption. If elevated administer Vit K1 &amp; continue until prothrombin time normalizes. Continue determination of prothrombin time for two weeks after withdrawal of antidote and resume treatment if elevation occurs in that time. SPILLAGE RELEASE ACTION: Place in areas protected from prevailing weather. Do not place where water course can be contaminated. Sweep up carefully &amp; place in suitable container awaiting professional disposal. MANAGEMENT (contact in case of emergency): Name: Jayne Jowett Telephone No: 01656 767072
WORK METHOD: (including precautions and controls to be implemented) Use PPE including gloves Do not eat; drink or smoke whilst using Tomcat Wash hands after use. Do not place in positions that are accessed by non-targets e.g. humans, domestic animals &amp; wildlife. Replace lid securely when not in use. Keep in locked container away from children. Waste should be double-bagged and disposed of via specialist or Local Authority.
Date of Review: 01/11/06 Name of Assessor: Jayne Jowett Position	Date of Review: Name of Assessor: Position

---

PENINSULA

---